Challenges

Do you know the legislation in each US state to manage your Sales and Use Tax exemptions?

Do you have a policy to notify hotels of tax exemptions at the time of booking, and most importantly, do they honour it? How are you ensuring this?

Do you know your potential Sales & Use Tax recovery amount?

Solutions

In order to ensure exempt organizations in the United States minimize the cost of Sales & Use Tax on business expenses, Taxback International have developed a unique offering for all customers to maximize exemptions on US domestic business expenses. This service includes a free analysis of your data to identify transactions where the Sales & Use Tax exemption has not been taken advantage of. Taxback International will review all incorrectly charged Sales & Use Tax and work to get it successfully refunded to you. This touchless, end to end solution is managed entirely by Taxback International.
